FROM THE EAST

It's hard to believe that the summer is over, schools are open and it is time to for Lodge to start meeting once again. To mark the end of another summer, Brother Kevin Barry and his Lady Diane graciously hosted our annual end of summer picnic and crab feast. There were a little over 60 brethren and guests, including the children, who dug into the crabs, filets, chicken, and shrimp. Many thanks to the Barry's for opening up their home to us for another year.

Our Grand Visitation for 2004 will be at the Takoma Lodge Hall on Tuesday, October 12, 2004. A pre-communication dinner, hosted by the several lodges participating that evening, will be held at the Lodge Hall beginning at 6:00 PM. Despite the fact that we will not be in our usual home and on our usual night, let us all come out and support your Lodge officers on this special night.

Sincerely and Fraternally,
Alan L. Gordon
Worshipful Master
